Different Ways AnastasiaDate.com protects its Website Members

1000'S OF 100% GENUINE LADIES ARE WAITING FOR YOU!

Thank you for choosing AnastasiaDate.com to help you search for your special soul mate. We take every effort to ensure you have a safe and trouble free experience.

It's hard to imagine that a dating website can guarantee a 100% scam-free dating experience but it seems that AnastasiaDate.com has done the impossible. Since it first started in 1993, AnastasiaDate has been dedicated to the protection of its members. Having understood that a secure dating environment is needed, the leading dating company has developed a proven system that ensures the safety and an overall positive experience of the people who've signed up and are using the various AnastasiaDate dating tools and services.

The safety measures that AnastasiaDate implements are of no secret. These measures can all be found on the website and they are in the form of DOs and DONTs, profile verification and scam and reimbursement policies:

AnastasiaDate's DOs and DONTs

AnastasiaDate makes it a point that every member, either beginner or seasoned, understands and is reminded of the different red flags that they should be watching out for when online dating. Most of these DOs and DONTs can be found in AnastasiaDate's website but some tips can also be found on the website itself.

These would include the following:

1. Never send money to a lady.
2. Arrange dates through the "Date Me" service.
3. Exchange contact information with a lady through the "Call Me" service.
4. Conduct video chats with a lady every once in a while.

Following these tips will ensure that a member's personal information remains private and that the member can verify the identity of the lady he's corresponding with.

Profile Verification

AnastasiaDate conducts a profile verification process for the ladies that sign up. This process is tedious yet necessary. Before a lady can sign up, her passport is checked to verify her identity. Her background is also checked to confirm her status claims, as well as the other claims that she would like to include in her profile. Another requirement that a lady needs to provide is a videotape interview where she is asked more specific questions.

Scam and Reimbursement Policies

The scam and reimbursement policies are all clearly stated on the AnastasiaDate website in order to avoid misunderstandings.

Despite keeping a close eye on the different activities that take place on the website, there are incidents that are out of the company's hands. These situations are clearly laid out so members can be aware. This includes the following:

- The agency makes a mistake in the translation of the letter.
- If a lady refuses to answer all questions in an email.
- If after meeting with a member, the lady says she is not interested.

More information can be found on the website here.

On the other hand, if a lady misidentifies herself, requests money or an expensive gift, misrepresents the details she put on her profile and so on,

AnastasiaDate will see to it that proper sanctions are implemented and that accurate reimbursements are paid.

On top of all of these, customer service representatives are on standby 24-7 to cater to any questions or complaints. Undoubtedly, all of these factors make AnastasiaDate the company that it is today – a company that takes pride in keeping its members safe.
